KENTUCKY ABC LAWS - INTRODUCTION

Trying to stay up to date on Kentucky's alcohol statutes and regulations is a daunting challenge given the changes in the law from one legislative session to the next. This document is the third edition of the Kentucky League of Cities Legal Department's compendium of current effective statutes and regulations governing alcohol. It is a snapshot of Kentucky's laws as they exist prior to the 2023 legislative session.

This PDF is word searchable and allows you to use a keyword search to locate the portions of the Kentucky statutory laws and regulations that apply to your community's situation. Should that fail, or if you have questions about any matter of municipal law, contact the Kentucky League of Cities Department of Municipal Law at 800.876.4552.

 - (d) Assign an agreement, in part or in whole, with a distributor, except with consent from the distributor which shall not be unreasonably withheld. If a brewer or importer violates subsection (3)(a), (b), or (g) of this section, the injured distributor's reasonable damages shall be the fair market value of the distributor's business. For purposes of this paragraph, a reasonable opportunity to cure shall be sixty (60) days from the date a notice of an alleged deficiency is received;
 - (c) Permit the assignment of the distribution agreement, in part or in whole, without first obtaining the consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld provided the assignee possesses the financial, technical, and operational skills necessary to perform under the distribution agreement;

 - (g) In the case of a microbrewer whose products represent five percent (5%) or less of a distributor's gross annual sales, the giving of a forty-five (45) day notice of termination and the payment to the distributor of reasonable compensation, which shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the distributor's total investment in the microbrewer's products being terminated.
