Kentucky League of Cities

Contact:
Sarah Stoll
Business Development Manager
sstoll@klc.org
859.977.3748

KLC serves those who serve, working as the unified voice of Kentucky cities by enhancing efforts to improve quality of life through community innovation, effective leadership, and quality governance.

DINE LIKE A DIPLOMAT®

KLC
Kentucky League of Cities

The Kentucky League of Cities (KLC) is proud to present to our member cities this special training course focused on dining, etiquette, and protocol facilitated by a licensed corporate etiquette and international protocol consultant.

KLC.ORG

Shine while you dine!

KLC is Kentucky's most trusted resource for more than 20,000 city officials and employees. We are the only organization that is specifically dedicated to serving cities. The soft skills presented in this hands-on training will help your elected officials, board members, and staff distinguish themselves from the crowd and will propel them to successfully explore new markets, develop opportunities worldwide, and master techniques necessary to build lasting relationships and "Outclass the Competition."®

WHY ARE THESE SOFT SKILLS IMPORTANT?

- ◆ Help you project confidence and authority in both municipal and business settings

- ◆ Gain certain skills to handle oneself well at a cocktail party or dinner table that will set you apart in the workplace

- ◆ Learn how to leave a lasting impression from the table

HERE'S WHAT THOSE WHO ATTENDED DINE LIKE A DIPLOMAT ARE SAYING:

"Sarah* taught etiquette in such a relatable and fun manner that everyone had a wonderful time while learning skills that are useful and necessary in a professional setting."

"I loved it! If it is not taught in the home, where would you find such an opportunity to learn manners and etiquette?"

"When would I have an opportunity to dine with a diverse group of table mates to hear their comments about dining etiquette?"

*Sarah Stoll, KLC Business Development Manager and Course Instructor